Synopsis:

As Farm Grandma is doing morning chores, she tells the animals the exciting news that tomorrow she will have a surprise for them. All the animals are excited and are impatient to see the surprise.

The next morning when the Farmer comes out to feed the animals instead of Farm Grandma, the animals decide they can wait no longer and take matters into their own hands!

The Series:

The Farm Grandma Tales series of books is written for children who love stories about delightful animal characters. The child's imagination will be opened to the heartwarming world of talking farm animals and their lively adventures with Farm Grandma. The antics and endearing personalities of each animal will find a special place in the heart of every child.
