

Farm Grandma Tales

Book Excerpt

FarmGrandmaTales.com

Chloe Finds a Friend

(Book 3 in the Farm Grandma Tales series)

Chloe is the smallest cow on the farm. She is very sad as she is shunned and ignored by the other cows. Tess the horse, who is the oldest and wisest of the farm animals, sees her sadness and wants to help.

Tess comes up with a plan. In order to make her plan work she needs the help of one of the more thoughtful and kinder of the cows. Will these two be able to break down barriers and bring peace and unity to the barnyard?

(excerpts from 44 pages with 19 illustrations)

One sunny morning, Tess found Chloe alone in the barn crying. It is very sad when a cow cries. Chloe's little cow heart was breaking.

"What are you crying about, Chloe?" Tess gently nickered.

"I don't understand why the other cows don't like me," Chloe tells Tess between sobs. "I want to eat, and play cow games with them, but they won't let me."

"Hannah," Tess whispered, "I am very concerned about Chloe."

Hannah raised her head to look at Tess.

"Yes, Tess, I have seen how poorly the other cows treat her," Hannah sadly replied. "But what can we do?"

Tess and Hannah thought a great deal about how they might help Chloe. They both liked Chloe and wanted to do what was right.

After much discussion Tess had an idea!

"Hannah, maybe if you became Chloe's friend, the other cows will want to be her friend too."

"Yes, Tess, I think that might work!" agreed Hannah.

