Synopsis:

Chloe is the smallest cow on the farm. She is very sad as she is shunned and ignored by the other cows. Tess the horse, who is the oldest and wisest of the farm animals, sees her sadness and wants to help.

Tess comes up with a plan. In order to make her plan work she needs the help of one of the more thoughtful and kinder of the cows. Will these two be able to break down barriers and bring peace and unity to the barnyard?

The Series:

The Farm Grandma Tales series of books is written for children who love stories about delightful animal characters. The child's imagination will be opened to the heartwarming world of talking farm animals and their lively adventures with Farm Grandma. The antics and endearing personalities of each animal will find a special place in the heart of every child.
